5. PUBLICATIONS

Coke, Karl D., God is Charismatic, Redding, California, AndyBooks Publications, Copyright 1983, Revised 1995 – A book appealing for unity around the controversial subject commonly known as the “Gifts of the Holy Spirit.” This work is now used in the curriculum of The Timothy Program International Level One.

Coke, Karl D., Beginner's Hebrew Workbook, Charlotte, North Carolina, AndyBooks Publications, Copyright 1994 – A 4-section, 240-page workbook which includes a DVD, audio cassette and flashcards, designed to introduce an English-speaking student to Biblical Hebrew.

Coke, Karl D., Manna, Charlotte, North Carolina, AndyBooks Publications, 2003
ISBN 0-9743493-0-5 – A 100-page book on the hermeneutic of Jesus taken from Luke 24 by using “Manna” as treated in the Torah, Neveem, Ketoveem, Gospels, Epistles and Revelation.

Coke, Karl D., A Proper Education, Charlotte, North Carolina, AndyBooks Publications, 2007, ISBN 0-9743493-5-6 – A 352-page book discussing the need to have God in education. This work discusses the Biblical mandate for education, the problems caused in education by secular humanism and a fresh idea about designing curriculum without excluding God. This book is now being used as a graduate course in Christian Education.

Coke, Karl D., Timothy Program Level One Curriculum, Charlotte, North Carolina, AndyBooks Publications, Copyright 1998, - A 2-year, 8-quarter, Bible curriculum dealing with the basics of faith. This curriculum was developed for third-world students and includes theological, historical, geographical, cultural and grammatical information. It is in outline form so that it is easily translated into foreign languages and useful to train families once absorbed by the student. This entire body of work is translated into Spanish.

Coke, Karl D., Timothy Program Level Two Curriculum, Lubbock, Texas, AndyBooks Publications, Copyright 1992 – A 4-year Bible college curriculum accredited by the American Accrediting Association of Theological Institutions, The Western Collegium of Bible Schools and the Accrediting Commission International. Textbooks used in many seminaries are used with study questions, examinations, papers and other assignments designed by Dr. Coke.

Coke, Karl D., Timothy Program Level Three Curriculum, Charlotte, North Carolina, AndyBooks Publications, Copyright 1998. A 3-year Bible curriculum offering a Master (two years) and a Doctorate (1 year) of Biblical Studies for third-world Church leaders. The purpose of this program is to offer the opportunity for third-world students to have their Master's thesis and Doctoral dissertation published in their own nation.

Coke, Karl D. Consider the Egg, Charlotte, North Carolina, AndyBooks Publications, Copyright 2011. A 400+-page book discussing the intellectual dishonesty of theists and atheists. It compares the foolish mocking of both groups regarding the other. It is a study of science, theology, philosophy, medicine, quantum physics and politics. It exposes the true meaning of “academic freedom” as being “academics free of God.” It calls for “a place at the academic table” for faith-in-God scholars. (currently in re-writing)

6. OTHER RESEARCH AND PERIODICALS

Coke, Karl D., research for David Benson, How Leadership Style Affects Church Growth, unpublished and presented by David Benson in fulfillment of his Masters' degree at Pepperdine University, Los Angeles, 1978

Coke, Karl D., 1995-present, quarterly, 3-page articles and 1-page “Hebrew” page for Restore Magazine, Atlanta Georgia. These many articles develop the themes around Jewish and Christian dialogue and the unity that is desired. It is a periodical awakening the Gentile Church to her Biblical, Jewish origins.
